

TASTING NOTE

2019 THOMSON FAMILY SHIRAZ

The Thomson Family Shiraz is produced predominantly from the fifteen rows of vines planted by Henry Best and only available in exceptional years, on average about six times a decade. Originally recorded as “Hermitage” by Henry in his daily journal. Today the clone is referred to by the CSIRO as the Concongella clone or the Best's Old Block clone and it is the mother clone of all subsequent shiraz plantings at Best's Great Western. This wine was first made in 1992, one hundred years after the Thomson family settled in the area. Thomson Family Shiraz is meticulously hand harvested, hand plunged and fermented in small open fermenters. Aged in 20% new French Oak and aged in Best's underground cellars for 14-18 months.

The Thomson Family Shiraz was elevated to the highest and rarest Langton's Classification of “Exceptional” in the 2018 Classification VII. It is the only Victorian Shiraz in this category.

The 2014 Thomson Family Shiraz was awarded the ‘Wine Of the Year’ in the 2017 Halliday Wine Companion and the 2017 was awarded 99 points in the 2020 Wine Companion.

TASTING NOTES

Colour:	Very dark red, with a ruby hue
Bouquet:	Very closed to begin, but opens in time to reveal a tapestry of deeply scented aromas including plum skins, exotic spices, concentrated dark fruits, rose petals and grilled nuts
Palate:	Very rich although only medium bodied. It is broody then expansive, intense but round then focused to a first-class line and length.
Cellaring:	This wine needs time to reveal its true character, 5 - 30yrs+. Try it with slow cooked shoulder of lamb in a rich sauce.
Vintage:	A warm, dry growing season meant the vines ripened quickly and crops were lower than average. Sufficient water supply ensured the grapevines remained in good health and some February rain gave the vines a well-deserved drink and freshened them up before the grapes were harvested.

JAMES HALLIDAY 2022 WINE COMPANION – August 2021, Jeni Port

Best's remains at the top of its game because of wines like this; wines that hold true to the Thomson family's winemaking philosophy, celebrating old vines and its distinguished sites. It all comes together beautifully, perfectly, in Thomson Family Shiraz. Tasted 1 year before release and it's already an elegant and noble wine. Dark berry fruits, hints of sage and cassia bark with gentle leafiness. Oak and tannins, well, they are seamless and supple. A complex life awaits.

WINEFRONT – GARY WALSH, April 2022

Come from the original 1868 plantings, which is quite something. Black and blue fruit, hazelnut, seaweed, a little nougat and spice. It's blue fruited, quite dense and firm, but also a little salty, with a fine chew to tannin, savoury and nutty, with old vine intensity and good carry on the finish. Good wine. Distinctive.
